Algaroba Lodge, I.O.G.T., 7:30.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Correspondence is solicited on the topics of the day, or what may become so. We reserve the right to exercise purely personal matter.

We do not hold ourselves responsible for the opinions expressed by our correspondents.—Ed.

That culvert on King street, opposite the Reformatory School, is again in a very dangerous condition for man and beast. It is a pity we have no Road Supervisor or some one in authority to look after these dangerous holes on the highways.

TAX-PAYER.

The Lady Lampson has been copied, and will now load up with cargo.

We hear that four houses were burnt down by the fire at Makiki.

The Lehua went out on Saturday and picked up the Niagara's anchor.

There is a boot-black now on the steps of J. W. Robertson & Co.'s store.

The boys serenaded the Alaska after dark on Wednesday, and were received on board very pleasantly.

Mr. GRAHAM gave a nice little dinner at the Hotel to a few friends on Thursday night. Everybody enjoyed it.

Why doesn't the water run in the Makiki flume? At least, we hear, it didn't during the fire out there.

The Chinaman killed at Heeia on Thursday was named Tuck On. He was killed by a cart overturning, and the pole or tongue striking him on the head.

The valuable Bible, which has given Captain Jenks so many sleepless nights, has been found, and can be seen on J. W. Robertson & Co.'s counter for a few days.

We correct an error in our report of the Hope's disaster: she sailed last from Port Townsend and not Port Blakely. She was 50 days from Port Townsend when she arrived here.

The way the new regulations are being enforced will keep the expressmen to the mark. No man will get a license who is in the habit of getting drunk. This is a really good thing.

We hear on good authority that the advertisement in a cotemporary headed "A Black-letter Day," was inserted solely on the authority of the person signing it, and without the concurrence of the body of the Good Templars.

Mr. James Arnold is boring a well for Mr. J. I. Dowsett, at Hala-wa, Ewa, formerly the site of Williams' Sugar Plantation. A depth of one hundred feet has been reached, all through rich alluvial soil, similar to that on the surface.

Mr. C. R. Bishop's brick stables and coach-house, now being built by Mr. Geo. Lucas, are to cost $15,000. They are fitted up with the latest improvements, and by simply turning a crank, the horses can be supplied with whatever feed is desired.

A Privy Councillor, the Hon. D. Kahanu, was locked up all Wednesday night and fined $10 on Thursday, for entering a licensed premises in a state of intoxication. The licensee very properly refused to serve him. And this is the fine example we get from the great ones of the land!

17 drinks at the Police Court.

We understand that a meeting of the Hawaiian Agricultural Society will be held to-morrow evening, if convenient to the Planters' Association.

The bark Tolani, 134 days from Bremen, and the stmr. Jas. Makee, 11 days from San Francisco, arrived on Saturday.

It has been noticed of late that the carriages of those attending Fort street services, have been in many cases left in such positions as almost to block the road. Where it is possible they ought to be placed in the yard, and when that cannot be done, they should be aligned on both sides of the street.

The public meeting at the Armory on Friday night appointed an Executive Committee of 13 to superintend the arrangements for the celebration of His Majesty's birthday next month, and empowered them to appoint sub-committees. The Committee are to report progress next Friday evening at the same place.

WHERE is the law for the prevention of cruelty to animals? At 10 a.m. on Wednesday, a team of oxen with a big load of stone from Makiki were being driven into town, and one of them dropped dead in yoke on King street, opposite the Little Britain estate. We are told that it is not the first case of the kind.

It is a shame that with the knowledge of the present short supply of water, so many people allow the water to run to waste. They need not be surprised if they find their supply cut off. We hear, too, of many people being unable to get any water at all during the day for culinary purposes, and yet others allow their taps to run constantly. They should show a little consideration.

A MEETING of the Planters' Labor and Supply Co. will be held at the Armory to day at 10 a.m. The first of these meetings will be for Stock Holders only, for the Transaction of General Business relating to the Company, after which there will be meetings for the reading of reports and discussion of matters relating to Plantation affairs, to which all interested in such topics are invited.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hopper held a wedding reception at their residence on Thursday night. There was a large number of guests and everyone passed a most enjoyable evening. The only bar to the enjoyment was the absence of Mr. Hopper, Senr., and several of the guests who were on the jury and were locked up till 3:30 a.m. The bride and bridegroom received a number of handsome and valuable presents.

Miss BREEZE gave a very enjoyable sociable at the Kindergarten on Friday night. The rooms were crowded with the pupils and friends. The evening's talk was pleasantly diversified with recitations and music by the pupils, assisted by some of their friends. Mrs. W. W. Hall sang a beautiful song, entitled "Wedding Bells," and Miss Prescott read excellently the well-known "Maud Muller," and Mr. Cruzan made a humorous speech on "Sociables." Mrs. McChesney also sang pleasantly. The guests separated about half-past 9 o'clock.

SERIOUS AFFRAY.—Wilkinson a barber at the Hotel cut a native woman named Mary Howard with a razor, while drunk on Friday. This is the third time on these islands that he has committed a similar offence. Wilkinson had gone into the woman's house and was making love to her. She rejected his advances and then a girl entered the room where they were to get a needle. Wilkinson offered her 25 cents to go out. At this stage another woman came in and told him to go out as there would be trouble. He then got up and seized Mrs. Howard by the hair drawing a razor from his pocket at the same time. In the struggle which ensued the woman's arm was badly cut. Wilkinson was lodged in the Police-station, and on Saturday was remanded by the Court till this morning. The police deny the statement that he was out of the cell on Friday night.

The Police Court has been besieged with applicants for driver's licenses. Mr. Dayton's time is pretty well occupied with giving his decisions and issuing licenses to those whom he is satisfied are fit to receive them. A searching catechism has been prepared and Mr. W. S. Wond puts all the applicants through it rigidly and tests them on all the difficult points. Some of the candidates bring in some queer testimonials. The following is a specimen: "A Chinaman carriage-driver insists on my giving him a recommendation. I am not particularly acquainted with the man, but I know that he owes us about $30, which we have not been able to collect."
